The "Richmond" Cavalier Dining Room

Furniture of character for homes of character

Cavalier Furniture

(HAND RUBBED)

Complete room decorating plan with every suite

WOULDN'T you like to have the advice of a famous interior decorator on the arrangement of your rooms?

That is the service we offer you with every piece of Cavalier Furniture. It is given by the manufacturers of Cavalier Furniture as their contribution to the nation-wide movement for better homes in America.

For every suite of Cavalier bedroom and dining room furniture is planned a beautiful, practical interior that you can duplicate in your own home inexpensively. We can tell you where to get the identical wall paper, draperies, fixtures and furnishings to duplicate the model room plans on exhibit in our store.

In following this advice you are obtaining the services of a famous furnishing artist whose fee, if you could get him to help you with your decorating problem, would cost you more than the furniture itself.

Each complete room is worthy of the care and skill and artistry that go into every piece of Cavalier Furniture. You could not want better furniture in your home. You should be satisfied with nothing less.

Cavalier designs are artistically correct. They express the American ideal of home comfort, beauty, and utility. The cabinet woods are selected for their soundness and beautiful grain. The construction warrants generations of service. Every piece is hand rubbed.

Every piece carries the Cavalier nameplate, the honor mark of furniture makers who have produced good furniture for fifty-nine years.

See our exhibit of model room plans

Even though you do not want new furniture, we invite you to view our exhibit of model room plans, including the Richmond Dining Room plan, in full colors, in six different color schemes. It may give you new ideas for arranging your present furnishings so that you will have a more beautiful home.

The Richmond Cavalier Dining Room Suite No. 620, shown above, comes in walnut or brown mahogany, with English antique hardware. Now on display, with many other Cavalier suites.

IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

Happenings In Various Sections Of Old Virginia

NEWS ITEMS FOR OUR READERS

Newport News.—Secretary of the Navy Curtis Dwight Wilbur inspected the Hampton Roads naval operating base and Norfolk navy yard.

Lynchburg.—Sales of poppies here for the relief fund of the Lynchburg Post, American Legion, segregated $956.79. The work was done by the woman's auxiliary of the post.

Roanoke.—Colonel William H. Lewis, commissioner of parks, retired Norfolk and Western official and an early resident of this city died at a local hospital following an illness of about three weeks. He was in his 78th year.

Lynchburg.—Miss Esther Cooper daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cooper, of the R. C. Glass High school here, has been awarded first place in an essay contest offered by Emory University, Ga., the theme being: "Why go to College?" The contest was open to all high schools of Virginia.

Norfolk.—Mrs. Walter Fain, member of the House of Delegates, whose name had been put forward for a place on the State delegation to the National Democratic Convention, announced that she was not a candidate, "I feel that this honor should go to another Virginia woman in the party," she said.

Ashland.—County Farm Agent Joseph C. Stiles and William D. Wickham have been named as the Hanover county representatives in the Tobacco Grower's Co-Operative Association in the district composed of nine counties in this section. W. S. Garrett, of Goochland, has been named as one of twenty-five representatives in the 7th State Association.

Lynchburg.—A blind negro operating a blind tiger at 104 Jackson street, was a condition which confronted a raiding squad here when Robert Cook, negro, was taken in charge when the police captured ten gallons and three quarts of corn liquor in a chicken house on Cook's premises. The negro pleaded guilty and was held for the grand jury.

Fairfax.—Representative R. Walton Moore, of the Eighth Virginia District, was host to all Democratic members of the House of Representatives and their wives and families, at an informal reception at his home here, in spite of a heavy rain, at least 250 members, with their wives, were in attendance.

Saluda.—F. E. Topping, former sheriff of Middlesex county, died at his home near Amburg. He is survived by three sons, Dr. Howard Topping, of Roanoke; Dr. John W. Topping, of Staunton, and F. E. Topping, Jr., of Cape Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. William Vokes, of Richmond, and Miss Jessie Topping, of this county.

Blacksburg.—The annual catalogue of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute for the college year 1923-24 and containing announcements and changes for the session 1924-25 has just been issued from the press of the college printing plant. The book contains a great deal of information of interest not only to present and prospective students and their parents, but also to friends of the school.

Danville.—The Fifth Virginia District congressional campaign, which during the past two weeks has been quiet, has taken another course with friends of Kenaan C. Whittle, of Martinsville, approaching the young attorney to come out and make the race for the nomination in the August primary. He is a son of Judge Stafford Whittle, formerly of the Virginia Court of Appeals. He has announced no decision in the matter.

Fredericksburg.—An indictment for murder was returned by a special grand jury in Spotsylvania Circuit Court against Charles B. Kendall, on the charge of slaying Robert L. Powell on May 17. After examining J. Harris Dulin and Mamie V. Harris, L. J. Chewning, foreman, reported a true bill for homicide. The indictment charges that Kendall deliberately and premeditatedly murdered Dr. Powell.

Stanton.—Sale of all stock of Old Dominion Power Company, Inc., to Kentucky Utilities, of Louisville, subsidiary of the Associated Gas & Electric Company, was announced here by C. H. Hardy, local manager of the company on receipt of a telegram from company offices in New York that negotiations between the two companies had been closed. The new owners acquire property as of midnight May 31. Nothing is known here regarding the price involved in the transaction or terms of sale.

Roanoke.—Lewis Morgan, 56 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Morgan, was fatally injured when struck by a truck belonging to the Exchange Lumber Company and driven by J. L. Hale.

Lynchburg.—Catherine Wright and Jack Hancock, women, have been held for the grand jury here charged with violating the State prohibition laws by storing five quarts of liquor in their home, 507 Sixth street. E. R. Davis, charged with illegitimately with the raid, was given three months, from which he noted an appeal for jury trial.

Danville.—Silas Gwynn, well-known Danville tobacco man and for nearly twenty-five years general manager in Virginia for the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, has resigned his position and will retire to private life on July 1. Mr. Gwynn is retiring on account of ill health. Mr. Gwynn will live in his new country home, which is being built on the Reidsville road a few miles south of Stokesland.

Roanoke.—A short business session at which it was decided to change the dates of the next annual convention in Petersburg from May 30 and 31 to July 2 and 4, in order to meet with the postal supervisors there, brought to a close the fourth annual convention of the Virginia State Federation of Postal Clerks, which convened here at the Hotel Roanoke. After the session practically all of the visitors went on a trip to Catawba Sanitarium as the guests of the Roanoke clerks.

Lynchburg.—Gorham Walker, high school student, who was Mayor here during the recent Boys' Week, staged under auspices of the Rotary Club, has been named a candidate for boy governor of Virginia and backers of the plan here hope to secure at least 50,000 votes for him, which would mean $5,000 from Lynchburg toward the purchase of Monticello as a memorial to Thomas Jefferson. It is not expected that there will be another candidate from Lynchburg.

Charlottesville.—A brass star, as a memorial to Captain Jack Jouett, Jr., in commemoration of his heroic ride to save Thomas Jefferson and the Virginia Legislature from General Tarleton's raid, was unveiled at Monticello, The exercises were presided over by Garland M. McNutt, former member of the House of Delegates, and the invocation was by the Rev. Noble C. Powell, rector of St. Paul's Church, at the University of Virginia. Brief addresses were delivered by Professor Dumas Malone, of the University, and Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, State regent, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Charlottesville.—Freda Osborne, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Osborne, of Greenbrier county, W. Va., died at a local hospital from asphyxiation caused by a stricture of the esophagus, which was superinduced by having drunk a mixture containing lye some months ago. The little girl was being taken to Philadelphia for treatment, but before reaching Charlottesville her condition became so serious that her mother thought it best to stop here and seek the aid of surgeons. An operation was performed in the hope of saving the little one's life, but her death followed shortly afterward.

Lynchburg.—The month of May proved to be the coldest on record with a single exception and the wettest since 1896, the mean temperature for the period being 61.4 degrees and the precipitation amounting to 8.16 inches. The coldest May of record here since 1872 was in 1917, when the mean was 60.6 degrees, one-eighth of a degree less than the month just closed. The mean for the month was 2.5 degrees below the normal for fifty years and the precipitation was 1.17 inches excessive, but at the close of the month the rainfall since the first of the year was still 1.79 inches below the normal for the first five months of the year.

Charlottesville.—A special course in public speaking for club women is being offered during the first term of the University of Virginia summer quarter, which opens June 16. This course is to be conducted to meet a need that has been found throughout the State and in response to repeated requests for work of this nature. Miss Zibelle Whittington, who will teach this course, is a graduate of the Curry School of Expression of Boston, and was for several years a teacher there. At present she is director of the department of expression, Shaw School, Cleveland, Ohio. She will be assisted in her public speaking classes by Bingay Gennison, instructor, Curry School of Expression, Union Theological Seminary, New York, and Connecticut College.

Winchester.—William Ridley, colored, who told the court he was 81 years old, began serving a thirty-day jail sentence two hours after he had been arrested on a charge of having an illicit still in his possession. The sheriff had captured the still, arrested Ridley, the grand jury had indicted him, and he was arraigned, pleading guilty, and was sentenced, all within 120 minutes. In addition he was fined 150 and costs. Ridley is the oldest person ever arrested here for an offense of the kind.

SEVERE CRAMPING SPELLS, PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

"My trouble has been periodic cramping spells," says Mrs. C. C. Draper, of Atlanta, Texas. "For several years these have come on me so bad that I had to quit my work and go to bed. Every month I would stay in bed from one to two days. The pains in my back and sides were awful.

"This went on for several months after I was married until, one time when I was having a bad spell, my husband suggested that I try Cardui. I said I would try it, so he got me a bottle at the store and I began to take it.

"It seemed like I improved from the very first dose. When I had taken one bottle I was very much better. I did not cramp so hard the next month and I ate and slept better. I was not nearly so nervous, either. I thought Cardui was fine, so I continued the treatment until I had taken five bottles, at which time I felt completely well. I had no more cramping spells at all, and my health was as good as anybody's. I am feeling fine now and I give all the credit to Cardui, for I had been suffering for years before I took it."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, containing no harmful ingredients, but is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Its users have testified to its special value at the time of entering womanhood at maturity and at the time of the change of life.

For over 40 years, Cardui has been tested in use by thousands of women who have written to tell of the great benefit they have received from it. For over 600 years, medical authorities have recommended one of the principal ingredients of Cardui in the treatment of certain female complaints.

Cardui, the woman's tonic, tested by time, is today the product of many years of experience and investigation. It is manufactured in up-to-date laboratories by the most modern and sanitary methods of pharmaceutical science and is for sale by all druggists. J 94

Workmen have begun building on A. Nuttcombe's new home.

"More rain, more rest!" The farmers are getting plenty of rest these days and the mud holes are growing deeper and deeper.

Out of the $1,000,000 of the gasoline tax that the feeder roads are entitled to, it seems we should have something better than mudholes.

Nearly every family within five miles of here has a car and there are several trucks besides and we are entitled to better roads.

Mr. Monroe Garrett carried Mrs. Pillow to a Lynchburg hospital Monday. We hope she will be benefitted by the treatment she will receive.

Miss Marcia Childress, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with homefolks.

It was with regret that this community received the news of Miss Lucy Nowlin's death. Miss Nowlin's girlhood and young womanhood were spent in this neighborhood and she had many friends who will sadly miss her. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones who are left behind.

North Side

Did someone wish for rain? Not this spring and are the roads bad? I should say they are, almost impassable for cars.

The farmers are behind with their work in this section on account of wet weather.

Mrs. Nancy Kyle who has been spending the winter in Lynchburg has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Coleman.

The little daughter of Mr. North Robertson who was badly burned last week is improving.

Miss Lorene Reynolds returned home last Friday from a visit to Miss Vivian Clark of Mecklinburg.

Tom Harvey is ill, he is one of our oldest citizens.

Mrs. Tyler Coleman is not as well as usual. She has been an invalid for about twenty years and her patience is something wonderful, in all these years of suffering she has never murmured or complained. She has our sympathy and also her husband, who has been such a faithful nurse all these years.

Rev. J. H. Gordon and two grandsons, have been on a visit to his daughter in Mecklenburg.

Mr. George Abbitt is sick.

FOREST VIEW

On account of so much rain the farmers are very much behind with their work, some have finished planting tobacco.

Mesdames Norman and Sylvesta Pugh and children of Charlotte, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Fetna Marshall, at the home of T. H. Ford. Mrs. Marshall is right much improved after having a severe spell last week.

J. H. Martin is improving slowly, but still confined to his room.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jones, Messrs. Everett Ferguson, Dewitt Harvey, Misses Laura and Mattie Nash were visitors in the home of R. W. Martin last Sunday.

Misses Mazy D. Marshall and Lyda Ford are on a visit to their aunt Mrs. Spoonhour, in Pennsylvania. They expect to take in Natural Bridge, Luray Cave and other points of interest.

Mr. Magann was a visitor on Rattlesnake last Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Moses and daughter, Willie Belle, visited her sister, Mrs. John Marshall last Sunday, who has been sick some time.

Mrs. Carrie Harvey is on the sick list.

Willie Overby's mother from Halifax has been visiting him the past week.

Good Roads Picture

The old country doctor is an important character in "The Road To Happiness," the new better highways motion picture will be presented at the auditorium at Appomattox, Va., next Monday evening, June 23.

He knew better than anyone else in the community what good roads meant, for many a time to reach a patient quickly was a matter of saving a human life, and with roads as they were, there was always the hazard of undue delay. So the old doctor appears as one of the chief boosters for better roads.

"The Road To Happiness" is the latest production of the Ford Motion Picture Laboratory and was produced in co-operation with government officials at Washington, D. C. It has the approval of the Bureau of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Highway Educational Board and the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

President Coolidge says:

"No expenditure of public money contributes so much to the National wealth as for building good roads."

My Prayer In Old Age

O most merciful God, cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not if my strength faileth. May my hoary head be found in righteousness. Preserve my mind from dotage and imbecility and my body from protracted disease and excruciating pain. Deliver me from despondency in my declining years, and enable me to bear, with patience, whatever may be Thy Holy Will. I humbly ask that my reason may be continued to the last and that I may be so comforted and supported that I may leave my testimony in favor of the reality of religion and of the faithfulness in fulfilling Thy gracious promises. And when my spirit leaves this clay tenement, Lord Jesus, receive it. Send some of the blessed angels to convey my inexperienced soul to the mansions into the kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Summer Hints For Young Mothers

The Child Who Won't Play

Healthy children love to romp in summer from early morn until the last call, and if a youngster mopes about the house and looks yellowish, you may know it isn't well.

Think over the little one's diet. It should be watched more carefully in summer. Too much heavy or raw food causes biliousness and indigestion.

Usually a thorough cleansing with Liv-o-lax and a little better sense about the food will straighten out the child quickly. Liv-o-lax is a vegetable laxative that works on the liver, too.

Liv-o-lax is easy to take. Children like it. You can get a good-sized bottle at the drug store for 30c.

Severe Pains in Side

"I HAD had quite a bad spell and sickness," writes Mrs. Emma Patrick, of Caney, Ky., "and it was an effort for me to go about my home. I had a very severe pain in my left side that almost took my breath at times. I lost my appetite. I grew thin, pale and lifeless. I fell off till I only weighed about 115 pounds.

"Cardui was recommended to me and by the time I had taken one bottle I saw it was what I needed. I ate more and rested better. I kept taking it and my skin and flesh took on a more healthy color. I felt stronger and, as the nervousness left me, the pain in my side was less severe. After taking nine bottles, I eat anything, go anywhere and feel fine. I weigh 160 pounds and am well. I feel that I owe it all to having used Cardui."

Pain, in certain parts of the body, is a sure indication of female complications. The treatment needed is not the use of narcotic drugs, but—
